

MARCH 2023 DSO-PB REPORT

NORTHWIND Roger Bazeley DSO-PB

1.) NORTHWIND 1st Quarter Publication Draft Layout was completed March 5th except one piece to be in received, proofed and inserted into final layout, Gail Giacomini ADSO-PB has been a key in editing and contributing articles for Q1 2023 as well as, Tiffany Townsend ADSO-PB, and Louis Sarto ADSO-PB.

2.) Attended Division One Change of Watch held at the Berkeley Yacht Club on February 4th and photographed proceedings for articles on that COW and the PCA fair article in Q1 NORTHWIND.

3.) NORTHWIND is on schedule for an early approval and release prior to our 2023 D-Train at RENO

4.) Main featured sections are an extensive Aerial Photography training article, D11NR Division and Flotilla Change of Command Ceremonies that were submitted with photos, several why I joined the Auxiliary from some of our D11N members with their unique experiences and areas of service, There is also an emphasis on the USCG Auxiliary Chaplain program contributed by Gail Giacomini, DSO-PB Bazeley, and our former District 11 USCG Chaplain.

5.) DSO-PB Roger Bazeley has put together a very intensive two hour D-Train course, titled Public Affairs Photojournalism and Packaging Articles for successful publication in Flotilla, Division, District and National Auxiliary Publications. Course is presented with an illustrative PowerPoint of successful published projects, and will be available to present the course at future locations and District PCA trainings. This is to help recruit new and interested members in the passion of telling our Auxiliary and USCG stories through photojournalism and going after your PA qualifications to even augment for the USCG PA and Multi-media teams. Becoming a better impact photographer and article writer with valuable tips is a part of my, 'Mini 2 hour PA/PB C-School'. Bring your cameras, running shoes and energy drinks.
